The Seine

Winding gracefully through northern France, the Seine River flows from Burgundy to the English Channel, serving as the historic heart of Paris. Lined with iconic landmarks, elegant bridges, and UNESCO World Heritage-listed riverbanks, the Seine reveals France at its most romantic. Beyond the capital, the river passes pastoral villages, Gothic cathedrals, and storybook towns, blending cultural grandeur with timeless natural beauty.

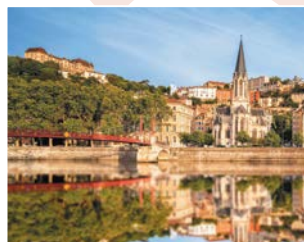

The Rhône

Carving through the alpine landscapes of Switzerland and France, the Rhône is the only major river flowing directly into the Mediterranean Sea. Medieval cities, ancient villages, and prosperous towns call the riverbanks home, and Gallic heritage runs through every bend of this beautiful waterway.

The Douro

This famed river of the Iberian Peninsula, the Douro, flows across Spain and Northern Portugal, draining into the Atlantic Ocean from the city of Porto. One of Europe's most striking landscapes, sun-drenched vineyards, charming villages and historical landmarks pepper the banks of the river.

The Saône

Springing from the low mountains of the Vosges, the Saône coalesces with the Rhône in the city of Lyon. Supporting trade and commerce since prehistoric times, the peaceful banks of the Saône are home to burgundy-roofed villages, sweeping meadows, and wind-shaped Poplar trees.

The Main

Formed by the confluence of rivers at the Fichtel and Fränkische Mountains of northeastern Bavaria, the Main River connects the Danube to the Rhine. Ancient wonders, UNESCO World Heritage-listed sites, and sweeping pastoral landscapes line the riverbanks in a distinct combination of natural beauty and quaint architecture.

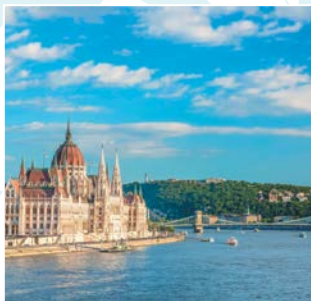

The Moselle

The Moselle rises on the forested slopes of the Vosges massif. Passing through western Germany, the river weaves its way through the spectacular historic architecture of fortifications and castles, charming riverside villages, and some of Germany's best-loved vineyards.

The Rhine

Flowing from the Alps in central Switzerland and draining into the North Sea in the Netherlands, the Rhine crosses diverse and fairy tale-like landscapes. Age-old castles, medieval towns, and historic cities rise from the riverbanks, telling the centuries-old story of this vital European waterway.

The Danube

The mighty Danube is the second-longest river in Europe after the Volga. Beginning life in the Black Forest mountains of southwest Germany, along its course, it passes through 10 countries and multiple capital cities, including Budapest, Vienna, Bratislava, and Belgrade. These stunning backdrops of the riverway showcase the great variety of European cultures and traditions.

The Mekong — Cambodia & Vietnam

A treasure trove of natural spectacles, ritualistic cultures, and warm locals, navigate Southeast Asia as we introduce over three millennia of proud history. Sailing through Vietnam and Cambodia, lush jungles, golden beaches, and the awe-inspiring vestiges of long-lost civilizations await, offering new and unforgettable experiences.

Halong Bay

Immerse yourself in the legend of the fabled battleground where dragons, summoned from the heavens, successfully fought off seafaring invaders, gifting these ethereal waters their name, Halong Bay, 'descending dragon'. In this legendary setting, limestone karsts rise from the tranquil waters of the Gulf of Tonkin. Crossing a network of aquamarine lakes, we drop anchor in the picturesque Trinh Nu and visit Sung Sot (or surprise) Cave, home to a majestic grotto adorned with stalactites and stalagmites. Meet the locals of the tiny fishing village of Cua Van and kayak out to Ho Ba Ham Lake to enjoy a moment of serenity as you paddle through dark caves and observe the stunning wildlife.

Hoi An

In Hoi An, sun-soaked canals weave through the beautifully preserved, UNESCO World Heritage-listed Ancient Town. Hoi An is home to an incredible mix of architectural styles, from wooden Chinese shophouses, decorated Vietnamese tube houses and kaleidoscopic French colonial buildings to the iconic 18th-century Japanese Covered Bridge. Enjoy plenty of time to explore this eclectic city on foot, take a tour to stunning Ang Bang Beach by cycle and visit the Reaching Out Project, an NGO created to help improve the quality of life of the city's locals.

Siem Reap

Siem Reap is a vibrant city in the ever-changing image of modern Cambodia and is home to the famed Angkor Wat temples. Here, where floating villages exemplify the importance of the water, traditional handicrafts showcase skills perfected throughout the centuries. The city itself is an exciting mix of delicious cuisine, unforgettable nightlife and spiritual monuments. Witness the UNESCO World Heritage-listed Angkor Wat during sunrise, as you walk through its grounds, marveling at the elaborate carvings at the most peaceful time of day. Tour the overgrown jungle-like temple of Ta Prohm and take your seat for the mesmerizing spectacle of high-flying acrobatics and music at Phare, the Cambodian Circus.

The Mekong River

Provence, France

Culture vultures

Best rivers: The Mekong and the Rhine

If culture is what captures your attention, Southeast Asia's Mekong River and Europe's Rhine River will take you on a marvellous journey of discovery. As you sail the 13-Day Wonders of Vietnam, Cambodia & the Mekong, you'll be enraptured by the region's traditional aspects, such as the local folk songs of My An Hung, the authentic Lion Dance show on board, and the stunning Buddhist temples found throughout Southeast Asia. Along the Rhine River, you'll experience the best of European culture. The 8-Day Tulips & the Rhine itinerary will treat you to the treasures of the Dutch Golden Age's artwork, the historic setting of Cologne, and you'll also have the chance to spot over 100 stunning sculptures scattered throughout the Schwetzingen Palace Gardens.

Food & wine connoisseurs

Best river: The Rhône

The Rhône River cuts a serene path through the heart of France, stopping at Lyon, the self-proclaimed culinary capital of the world. For those seeking the most delectable dishes to delight in and truly sumptuous wines to sip, the 8-Day Sensations of Lyon & Provence itinerary has plenty to offer. The rustic charm of Lyonnaise cuisine, paired with the region's stunning natural backdrop, makes for the perfect combination when enjoying a long alfresco lunch in the balmy French sunshine. And, of course, a glass of wine never goes amiss. You'll also have opportunities to explore the region's countryside vineyards, which will naturally involve tasting some of the continent's finest wines.

Life on the River

A river cruise of Europe or Southeast Asia unravels the story of these iconic locations. Witness Mother Nature at her finest in Southeast Asia, cruising some of the world's most biodiverse regions. And, in Europe, discover engineering at its most impressive as you pass under timeless bridges and navigate distinctive locks.

Emerald Radiance, Douro River, Portugal

What is a lock?

Europe's waterways aren't only distinctive because of their history; but also because of the terrain that can make navigation more challenging. Water locks, akin to an elevator, raise and lower ships to overcome the variations in water levels. The Rhine–Main–Danube Canal; for instance, boasts 16 locks, some as deep as 98.5 feet and reaching a height of over 1,330 feet.

Navigating a lock

Our Star-Ships have been engineered with locks in mind, designed to fit perfectly with inches to spare. Your captain is trained for such maneuvers, but sometimes water levels don't cooperate and, on occasion, this can lead to lock closures or difficulties passing under bridges when water levels are too high or too low. We always have a plan in place to handle navigation issues in a timely and efficient manner, with minimal disruption to your journey.

Emerald Harmony

Bridges

Throughout your time on board, we will sail under many different styles and fashions of bridges. On such days, we may need to close the Sun Deck for the safety of our guests. Our crew will lower the railings, and the captain's wheelhouse will be mechanically dropped to allow the Star-Ship safe navigation. But, with plentiful public spaces available throughout our Star-Ships, you'll always have somewhere to enjoy river views.

Double-docking

In popular ports, we will, on occasion, be required to dock next to other ships; this may mean accessing the shore via the Sun Deck, requiring you to ascend and descend stairs. This possible change will not prevent you from leaving your Star-Ship, as you catch a glimpse of your neighbouring ship walking through to embark or disembark. Your Star-Ship may dock next to another vessel overnight, and drawing your curtains at night is advised.

Along the Mekong

In Southeast Asia, we are committed to meaningful and respectful cultural interactions between local inhabitants and our guests. And many of our itineraries include certified Cherish the Planet experiences that ensure local businesses benefit from our journeys. We're also working with leaders and third parties within the communities we visit to ensure sustainability for the future. Emerald Harmony has been designed to sail through the center of Ho Chi Minh City, allowing us to dock in the heart of the city, and welcome its many sights and sounds to your doorstep.
